Why a Biblical Worldview Matters

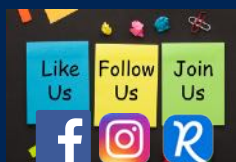

Ms. Laurie Janeczko, 7th Grade

As I thought about how to share my thoughts regarding a biblical worldview, the image of a lighthouse on the shore continued to pass through my mind.

During bright and sun filled days, the light from the lighthouse may not be as noticeable to us or others, but it is still there. However, during times of difficulty and storms, the light is steadfast and strong, providing reassurance and direction.

As an individual, viewing the world through a biblical lens reminds me of God's faithfulness and steadfastness during both the light of day and the darkness of night. Knowing my God is with me and that we were created to praise and worship our Master Creator throughout every storm strengthens me as one of his beautiful children.

As a teacher, embracing a biblical worldview allows me to better model and guide my students in their faith walk and personal relationship with Jesus Christ, hopefully helping them remember that through whatever difficult life moment and storm, His wonderful radiant light is always there.

Attribute of God - Good

Psalm 86:5

For thou, O Lord, art good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call on thee.

Character of God - Life

John 11:25-26

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life, he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

Students - Purity

Ephesians 5:3-4

But fornication and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is fitting among saints. Let there be no filthiness, nor silly talk, nor levity, which are not fitting; but instead let there be thanksgiving.

KCA - Accountability

Romans 14:12

So each of us shall give an account of himself to God.
