FEBRUARY IS

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Doctor Alexander Augusta

In 1861, Dr. Augusta left his 5-year post as head of Toronto City Hospital, returning to his home town of Baltimore to offer his services to President Lincoln as a Union Army Surgeon. He was made head surgeon with a Major's rank, becoming the highest ranking African American officer in the Union. He later became the first Black medical professor in America, and the first Black officer to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

Born in 1848, Susie King Taylor was secretly educated in Savannah, GA. After escaping slavery, at 14 years old, she began openly educating African Americans in Georgia. She worked as a nurse and teacher to Black soldiers in the Union Army, where she worked alongside Clara Barton - the founder of the American Red Cross. She also opened a school for African American children in 1866.

Abraham Galloway

Galloway escaped slavery and returned South three years later to free his mother and others from slavery. During the Civil War he spied on confederate troops by posing as a slave and helped raise three regiments of the United States Colored Troops for the Union. He was among the first Black men elected to the North Carolina legislature, serving as a State Senator from 1868-1869.

Your faithfulness continues through all generations; you established the earth, and it endures.

Students - Faithful With Little

Luke 16:10-11

He who is faithful in a very little thing is also faithful in much; and he who is dishonest in a very little thing is also dishonest in much. Therefore if you have not been faithful in the use of earthly wealth, who will entrust the true riches to you?

KCA - Be Faithful
